

NOMINATION FORM

Ngā Taonga Toi a Te Waka Toi 2021 (Te Waka Toi Awards)

Note:

- Nominations close at 1pm on Monday 21 June 2021.
- Artists may nominate themselves.
- You can only nominate one artist per category. Complete a separate nomination form for each category.

How to submit your nomination

- Email this completed and signed form, with supporting material to tewakatoiawards@creativenz.govt.nz by 1pm on Monday 21 June 2021.

Award category

Which of the Ngā Taonga Toi a Te Waka Toi 2021 categories is your nomination for?

- Ngā Tohu Hautūtanga Auaha Toi – Making a Difference Award (previously Te Tohu Toi Kē a Te Waka Toi): Recognises leadership and outstanding contribution to the development of new directions in Māori art.
- Ngā Manu Pīrere: Recognises an emerging artist showing promise and potential in their chosen artform.
- Te Tohu Iho Pūmanawa: Recognises the contribution of a Māori artist with the lived experience of disability to the standing, and standard of Māori arts in New Zealand and/or globally.

Contact details

Nominator information

Name of person making nomination:
Your postal address:
Your email address:
Your phone number:

Nominee information

Name of person you are nominating:
Their postal address:
Their email address:
Their phone number:
Their iwi affiliation:
Gender:

About the nominated artist

Answer the following three questions clearly and in no more than 500 words for each question. Attach any additional information to your email nomination, noting the strict criteria for accepted support material formats and limits.

Question 1 - Nominee

Why do you think the person you have nominated should receive this award? (Up to 500 words)

Question 2 - Mātauranga Māori

Give examples of how this nominee has incorporated Mātauranga Māori in their work (up to 500 words).

Note: We've hyperlinked some words so you can see the definitions in the glossary on our website. Here's a direct link to the glossary: www.creativenz.govt.nz/find-funding/glossary

Question 3 - Individual Awards criteria

In the space below, explain or provide examples of how this nominee meets the criteria of the award (as listed below) you are nominating them for (up to 500 words).

Individual Awards Outline

Ngā Tohu Hautūtanga Auaha Toi – Making a Difference Award

(previously Te Tohu Toi Kē a Te Waka Toi)

- Recognises leadership and outstanding contribution to the development of new directions in Māori art.

The recipients' work will:

- have received high acclaim
- be innovative and challenging, broadening perceptions of Māori art
- have provided inspiration and new directions in Māori art
- affirm the mana of Māori art.

Ngā Manu Pīrere

- Recognises an emerging artist showing promise and potential in their chosen artform.
- Recognises achievement at this developmental stage, supporting the artist to develop their arts career in their chosen field

The recipients will:

- be under 25 years old on the closing date of 18 June
- be an emerging artist who is at the early stages of their career, having left secondary school
- have received recognition for the public presentation of at least one work in the area of arts practice for which they are applying for funding
- be recognised by peers or experts in the artist's area of arts practice, which can include kaumātua or kuia, or other people of standing within the artist's community
- have specialised training or practical experience in their area of arts practice (training need not have been at an academic institution).

Notes:

- A collective (up to three emerging artists, post-secondary school and under 25 years old on the closing date) can be nominated or self-nominate for this award, with the $10,000 award monies shared between collective members.
- Artists can apply for this award to fund a project in one or a combination of the artforms below:
 - Māori arts - visual and craft/object, performing (e.g. dance, theatre, music, etc), language or literature
 - Māori arts-related area - curation or arts writing (technical or conservational).

Te Tohu Iho Pūmanawa:

- Recognises the contribution of a Māori artist with the lived experience of disability to the standing, and standard of Māori arts in New Zealand and/or globally.

The recipient will:

- be an artist or arts practitioner whose work, influence and commitment has raised the standards, expectations and reputation of Māori arts and artists
- be an artist of any art form or work in arts management
- have made an ongoing contribution to a local, national or global success story.

Support Material

List the support material you are providing eg. nominee's CV, letters of support, articles, reviews/examples of the nominee's work and visual support material.

See our website for accepted support material formats and limits.

Note, no hard copy support material can be accepted.

www.guidelines.creativenz.govt.nz/help/support-material

List the support material you will be attaching to your email. We can only accept up to five attachments.

Signed (Nominator)

Date